

Brian Cunningham

Brian joined FPC in 2012. He is a volunteer with our Room in the Inn ministry and is active in the All Families class on Sunday. Brian is currently serving on the Property and Men's Ministry Committees. He works for Morningstar Partners. Brian is married to Meredith, and they have two children, Charlotte and Greyson.

Mike Henry

Mike joined FPC with his wife Julie in 2000. Raised in Hurst, TX, he attended TCU and received a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting. Mike has served as an elder, as a member and chair of the Personnel Committee, as a member and vice chair of the Board of Trustees, and as a middle school youth sponsor here at the church. Mike has also served on the Finance Committee for Grace Presbytery and currently serves as a trustee of the Texas Presbyterian Foundation. He is employed in the oilfield services industry. Mike and Julie have two children, Emma and Will.

Barbara Martin

Barbara was born in Kentucky but grew up in Amarillo, TX. She received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the UT Medical Branch in Galveston. Barbara was ordained as an elder at First Pres in Amarillo and has served as a choir member and member of Congregational Care and Adult Christian Nurture Committees. She has served on mission trips to Costa Rica, Belize, Cuba, and India. Barbara joined FPC in 1999 and has been a part of Congregational Care, Nominating, and Evangelism Committees here. She is involved in PW, sings in the Fellowship Choir, and serves on the communion preparation team.

Ann McKinney

Ann graduated from UT Austin and soon moved back to her hometown, joining FPC in 1971. She worked at both the Kimbell and the Amon Carter Museums. An elder, Ann has served on various Session committees; the Search Committee for Organist/Choir Director, co-chaired the capital Campaign: Generation to Generation and most recently the Sanctuary Improvement Committee. She sings in both the Chancel and the Fellowship Choirs and is a volunteer with a group that visits assisted living facilities. For the past few years she has coordinated the chancel flowers for worship services. She and her husband, Tim, have two adult children.

Merianne Roth

Merianne and her husband Steve joined FPC in 2005. She currently serves on Session and chairs the Communications Committee. Professionally, Merianne has helped lead complex and dynamic organizations across several industries including retail, hospitality and government. She is now the associate vice chancellor for communications at Texas Christian University. She serves on the board of Presbyterian Night Shelter and is a Fort Worth Country Day Trustee. Merianne and Steve have two wonderful sons, Truman and Grady.

Michael Salazar

Michael came to First Pres in 1991 from Browning Heights Presbyterian Church here in Fort Worth. He is a member of the Growing Families of Faith class on Sunday mornings and has participated in the Bible in Depth class. Michael has also served on the Communications Committee. He works for Fidelity Investments. Michael and his wife, Leti, have two teenage sons, Alejandro and Santiago, and an adult daughter, Idalia.

Patrick Sheppard

Patrick and Becky joined FPC in 1983. He is retired from the Air Force and Delta Airlines. Patrick is very involved with the ministries at Community Crossroads and has regularly participated in Adult Christian Nurture and Spiritual Formation classes at FPC. Patrick and Becky have two adult daughters, Stephanie and Kimberly, who are also members of First Pres.

Margaret Sudderth

Margaret was born in Waco, TX, and attended UT Austin and Baylor University where she received a bachelors in American studies and a masters in history. She recently received a masters in social work from UT Arlington. She has worked as an archivist at the TCU Library and as a substitute teacher at Trinity Valley School. The Sudderth family came to First Pres from Ridglea Presbyterian in 2010, where she served as an ESL teacher, a Sunday School rotation teacher and a sponsor for KidQuake. At FPC, Margaret was ordained as an elder in 2014, and has served on the Worship and Music Committee and the Spiritual Formation Sub-Committee. She has been involved with Presbyterian Women, co-led Lenten studies and church school classes, and was a youth sponsor for Mo-Ranch. She has also gone on mission trips to Puerto Rico and Haiti. She is currently a member of the Journeys Sunday School class, the Labyrinth Guild and the Sacristy Guild. Margaret and her husband, Mark, have two daughters, Anna and Martha.

Jane Sykes

Jane has a rich history in the Presbyterian Church – having been a member of churches in Oklahoma City and in Austin. She is a graduate of Austin College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and Master of Arts degree in elementary education. Jane has served on Session for three separate terms and served on various committees including Mission, Nominating, Personnel, and Stewardship. She has taught Sunday School, VBS, and together Jane and Dan served as youth sponsors and started two adult Sunday School classes. She is involved in Presbyterian Women and is an honorary Life Member in the organization. Jane also embraces community service through United Community Centers, Woman’s Board of Cook Children’s Medical Center, Fort Worth Junior League, and others. She and her husband, Dan, have two adult children and four grandchildren.